Sale of Those Popular

One of America's largest importers and distributors of high-grade beaded bags sold us their big assort-

EVERY ONE IS HAND-MADE

There are no two alike in the entire assemblage, and the designs and patterns are beyond description. We have divided them into six groups, and each price rep-

AT LEAST 1/3 LESS THAN REGULAR PRICE

$15.95 $16.95 $19.50 $22.50 $24.50 $28.50

ment at a decided price concession.

Beaded bags are popular-more popular than ever before - and every woman can afford

one of these beauti-

Color And Charm Dominate First

Symphony Concert

BY NED COURTNEY. With difficulty did myself and I come from under the spell of Emil Oberhoffer's baton at the concert of the Minneapolis Symphony orchestra at the Lyric Tuesday afternoon, even as with ful creations.

pason of harmony

Readed Bags

The Finest French and

Domestic Makes Far Underpriced

Prominent Methodist Minister of Florida Conference Says Tanlac Restored His Health.

LUNCHEON AND BOX PARTY IN HONOR OF MRS. BETHELL

Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and for many years pairtor of the Wesley Memorial rhunch at Jacksonville, adds his testimony to the thousands of others who have been restored to health by its use. After saying that Tanlac had been recommended to him by several members of his compregation be made the remarkable statement that Tanlac had entirely relieved him of a severe case of chronic indigestion of eight or ten MRS. BALL WILL HONOR THREE LOVELY DEBUTANTES

Mrs. John Price Edrington will enter

Entertainments

Miss Margaret Boyle will be the host-ss at a most enjoyable affair on Wed-esday evening when she will enter-sin with a dinner-dance in her home rough of beauty.

For the occasion the charming young hostess will wear a lovely dinner freck of cream lace over delicate pink satin and her mother, Mrs. E. L. Boyle, who will assist her in entertaining, will wear a black lace robe, while the attractive young honoree, Miss Farnsworth, will rear a French frock of yellow velvel mbroidered in sequins with a corsage originated or childs. The guest list will be limited to the combers of the Farnaworth-Jameson

Among the many pretty affairs that have been given for Miss Sophie Farnsworth none could have been more attractive than the luncheon given by Miss Fleecie May Philips on Wednesday in her home on Adams avenue.

The decorations for the prettily appointed table were baskets of spring biossoms in varied hues.

Miss Farnsworth was gowned in a blossoms in varied hues.

Miss Farnsworth was gowned in a fark bine tricotine with a blue taffeta sport hat and wore a corsage bouquet of lavender sweet peas.
Miss Phillips wore a gown of black table with jet garniture and a corsage of pink sweet peas.
The guest list included members of the bridal party.

BROKEN BY OFFICERS

The police blotter Wednesday morn-

Pete Vandoras Bill Poppas George faxos John Kuches Chris Lachas and ohn Collas. The men posted $25 for-

AUTO OWNERS BETTER

GET NUMBERS SOON

BEALE AVE. QUIET

ridal party.

lows:

"For eight or ten years I suffered from chronic lidigestion causing intense pains from gas in my stomach. At times I would become very diagonal seldom slept well and also suffered at times with severa headaches; attacks of acute indigestion were frequent and I was alwayly uncomportable. ent and I was simply uncomfortable

$5.00 With lenses scientifically prescribed and fitted.

Schulte Optical Co.

Specialists in Fitting Giances
Ground Floor—91 S. MAIN ST.

Hours—8 s.m. to 6 p.m

VICTIMS RESCUED

Kidney, liver, bladder and uric acid troubles are most dangerous because of their insidious attacks. Heed the first warning they give that they need attention by taking

GOLD MEDAL

The world's standard remedy for these ers, will often ward off there disesses and strengthen the body against furtner attacks. Three sizes, all druggists. Lock for the name Gold Medal on every bea and accept no imitation

Juniper

Seep Juniper Tar In the Medicine

Chest for Emergencies. 60 Doses, 30c AT DRUGGISTS

The China Inn

EG SQ MAIN ST. American and Chinese Dishes

Special Business Lunch 50c to 60c

Nice, clean cooking Ban-quet parties. Orders sent

We Sell for Less

we also want to buy second-hand furni-ture and pianos for cash. We exchange new for old.

Hunt Bros.' Furniture Co.

148-150 Beale Ave. HAVING SHAVING TROUBLE? SEE

SOCIETY'S MIRROR

HARD WORK WINS INDIANA GIRL Announcements IMPORTANT PLACE IN CIVIC BODY MRS. SYMES AND MISS HAYS
HONOREES AT LUNCHEON
Mrs. John Frieter Symes of Denver

ELSIE L. GREEN.

When at 13, Elsie L. Green made her obscure start in the indianapolis business world, she had but one theory—hard work. Today, she is known to more big business men than any other woman in indiana, and has recently been made assistant general secretary of the indianapolis chamber of comperce which, with more than 4.000 members, is in the from rank of civic-commercial

Weddings

MEMPHIS MAN WILL WED POPULAR LOUISIANA GIRL The marriage of Miss Sue Clark, daughter of Mrs. Raymond Thurston Clark, of Crowley, La. to Mr. William B. Cleveland, of Memphis, will be solemnized on Wednesday svening at the First Methodist church in Crowley.

Miss Clark, who has visited in Memphis as the guest of Dr. and Mrs. Moore Moore, has mive a host of friends by her charming personality who will welcome her as one of the young society matrons. young society matrons.

Mr Cleveland is one of the most popular and prominent business men of the city.

After an Eastern wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland will be in their nome, 1774 Central avenue.

Kabakoff-Goff.

The marriage of Miss Sophia Celeste Kabakoff, on Peabody avenue, which place on Tuesday evening in the home Kabakoff, on Peabody avenue, which was beautifully decorated with paims and Columbia roses.

Just before the ceremony Mrs. William J. Boykin, of Gadsden, Ala., in a rich contralto voice, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because, "with violin obbligate by John Borjes. The bridal cherus from "Lohengein" was played as auditorium of the Narie Greenwood Worden studio Wednesday, Jan. 21, at 8 o'clock, in ing resembled a roll call of Battery Omega, third catabult hurlers, of the army of Alexander the Great, or a list of entries in the Olympic sames of centuries ago. Police Inspector W. D. Bee was to blame. He included a raid on the Greek club, Beale avenue, in his night's work.

At central headquarters, where a charge of gaming was entered opposite their names, the following registered:

hligato by John Borles. The bridal cherus from "Lohengrin" was played as the processional.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father wore a robe of Ivory saling in a draped model, cutrath. Her bridat veil fell from a coronet of pearls and she carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and valley filles.

Miss Ethel Rabakoff, who was her sister's maid of honor, wore a frock of sunset taffet, with trimmings of ostrich and rosely ds and carried a houquet of sweet pens and orchids.

Mr. Walkenheim, of Vicksburg, Miss. served as best man.

ohn Collas. The bit cach, it each, it each, it each.

The Fraternity Social club, Fourth and Beale, was going in full session, with John Floyd, negro. In charge, when Inspector Bee arrived. He took John on a gaming house charge, and 13 devotees for gaming. John posted 13 devotees for gaming. Mr. Walkenheim, of Vicksburg, Miss., served as best man.
The ceremony was followed by a wedding banquet, the table being beautifully decorated with ferns and yellow and white navised.
Mr. and Mrs. Goff left at midnight for a Southern boneymoon, the bride traveling in a tailored suit of maroon peachbloom with a spring hat in harmony. After Feb. 5 they will be at home to their friends at 1989 Peabody ayenue.

The out-of-town guests present were After Feb. 1, there will be a heavy penalty attached to the cost of auto and truck numbers both by the state and the city. John C. McLemore, county clerk, estimates that there are not less than

John C. McLemore, county clerk, estimates that there are not less than 14,000 autos in the city and county and about 3,000 trucks. But only 5,000 owners have thus far paid the state and county license and procured the numbers which show that the license has been paid.

The state and county add 7 per cent to the cost on Feb. I, with other costs which nearly double the cost of The confederate army the enjoyed good health all through his life and esames and an extra five bones must be paid if the license becomes delinquent.

Steel Engraved Stationery

of Character

We still render efficient Toof Service on orders for

S. C. Toof & Co., Engravers

Memphis

Tri-State Musical Examining Board

(Incorporated)

Tennessee-Mississippi-Arkansas

Midwinter Examinations in All Branches, Commencing

SATURDAY, FEB. 14, 1920 No entries accepted from candidates after Saturday, Jan. 31, 1529. All applications for examining must be made on the regular forms of the Board, obtainable at E. Witzmann & Co., 39 N. Second Street, or from the Registrar. Fees MUST accompany application form in every case.

J. PAUL STALLS

Phone Main 6153.

Address the Registrar,

Here and There

spending a week at the Hotel Chisca before leaving for their home, the Dixle plantation, in Southern Mississippi.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Buxbaum have as their guests Mr. Buxbaum's mother, Mrs. A. Buxbaum, and her young daughter, Rose, of New York city.

Mrs. Van Lester, of Duncan, Miss., was among the out-of-town guests who came for the Logan-Watkins wedding

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Cohen and little daughter, Polly Jane, will arrive Thurs-day to be the guests of their mother and sister, Mrs. Jennie Cohen and Miss Rose Cohen, in their home on Minns place.

ADDRESSES CREDIT MEN

MOOSE ENTERTAIN.

most enjoyable evening is promised.

Preparations have been made by the ledge for its manufernile party to be given Monday night, Feb. 9, at Miss Sturia's stadio.

The U. S. Fuel Administration Says: 'Metal weatherstrips on win-dows and doors are 100 per cent just conservation.' Ask for estimates. Chears Floor and Screen Co. Main adv.

Entertained By Capital Society

MISS BLANCHE LOUISE BUTLER.

FORMER VISIT OF EXPLORER
Many Memphis club women recall with pleasure a former visit to Memphis of Dr. Edgar J. Banks, explorer and archeaoligist, who lectured before members of the Nineteenth Century club and their invited guests.

Mr. Banks, who addressed a large audience at the Goodwan institute on Tuesday evening, will be heard there again on Wednesday evening when his subject will be "The Seven Wonders of the Ancient World," illustrated with some very unusual pictures.

MRS. MATHIS WILL ENTERTAIN
WOMAN'S MYSSIONARY SOCIETY
Mrs. J. F. Mathis will entertain the members of the Woman's Missionary society of the First M. E. church in her home, 8 North Bellevue boulevard, on Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All members and their friends have been invited to enjoy Mrs. Mathis' hospitality.

tality.

The guests will have the pleasure of hearing a reading by Mrs. L. D. Port. and musical numbers by Mmes. T. R. Easley, J. A. Scott and Agee Adams.

ms at 10 o'clock.

The program for the morning on "The lost Art" will be presented by memers of the public speakers' class of the club, of which Miss Sarah Wright chairman, and some of Mrs. Beecher's friends among those present will lso be asked to say a word.

Grace Church Men's Club.

The Men's club of Grace church will meet at dinner Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the parish bouse. The dinner will be served by the ladies of the parish guilds. The yearly work of the club will be outlined by Dr. J. B. Blue, the president, the Rev. Chas. T. Wright, the rector, and others. New officers will be elected as no election was held last year.

Temple Baptist Auxiliary.

The Ladies' auxiliary of Tennie Baptist church will hold its regular monthly business meeting at the church Thursday afterneon at 2 o'cock. All The officiers elected for the year are: President. Mrs. W. M. Collins: first vice-president. Mrs. L. R. Polk: second ylee-president. Mrs. L. A. Britzwinets first vice-president. Mrs. L. A. Britzwinets with the first vice president with the second of vice-president with the first movement of the work done by the grits from Quetal vice-president with the first movement gliding look of the work done by the grits from Quetal vice-president with the first movement gliding look president with the first movement gliding look of the large first vice.

Missionary Guild.

Missionary Guild.

Missionary Guild.

Missionary Guild.

The talless and their friends at the partsh bouse on Thursday evening i

The Missienary guild of the Mrst M. E. church will have an all-day meeting on Thursday to sow on vestments for the church choir.

Mrs. clyde Lienton and Mrs. J. L. Houd will serve as hostesses at the lone of the former in the idlewild apartments. All of the merchers who Charity Card Party. A heart and euchre party will be tiven on Pricky afternoon in the home of Mrs. J. S. Spinners 211 Walker ave-ule, the proceeds from which will be used for a charitable cause.

Young Women's Club.

Mmes. D. C. Moss. A. M. Boyd and J. W. Yarbrough will be the hostesses at a silver tea given on Thursday attended from 2 to 1 p clock for the benefit of the Peabody Parent-Teacher

CLUBDOM

AMERICAN POET HONOR GUEST
AT NINETEENTH CENTURY CLUB
Vactel Lindsay, distinguished American poet, who will appear at the Goodwyn institute on Friday evening. Jan.
28, will be entertained at the Nineteenth Century club on the afternoon of that day by members of the entertainment gommittee and dramatic art department. For that occasion he has been invited to read some of his own poems, especially "The Chinese Nightingale." A most artistic feature of the occasion, of which Miss Montgomery Cooper and Miss Charlotte Gallor have charge, is a group of dances by attractive young girls, which will flustrate some of the poems as they are being read.

CLUB WOMEN RECALL FORMER VISIT OF EXPLORER

MRS. CAREY PLANS TO HONOR MRS. BEECHER TO HONOR MRS. BEECHER

Mrs. Joseph P. Carey, who is the special chairman for the coming meeting of the Current Topics class, of the Nineteenth Century club, has planned the program in honor of Mrs. M. L. Beecher, by whom the class was formed and who has served as its chairman for many years. Mrs. Beecher is still in Denver, but the members of the class will take this method of letting her know how greatly she is missed and how much her work has always been appreciated.

All of Mrs. Beecher's special friends, whether members of the club or not, will be welcome at the meeting, which will be held on next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Whatsoever Circle. The Whatsover circle of the King's saughters will meet Thursday after-oon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Wharton ones, 1129 Vance avenue.

The Men's club of Grace church will Measuring Party. The Woman's Missionary society of larris Memorial church will have a pressuring party at the home of Mrs. darris Memorial church will have a neasuring party at the home of Mrs.

A. Brust, J., on North Fifth street, Thursday afternoon.

The guests will bring five cents for each foot of their height and a cent or each additional inch.

Refreshments will be served and a called their program has been arranged. delightful program has been arranged.

Temple Baptist Auxiliary.

Missionary Guild.

spect to attend are required ity either Mrs. Denton or Mrs. Head the day before the meeting

The classes of the Young Women's Parkersburg up will be held on Wednesday as Cincinnati follows:

Millinery at 7 p.m.
English at 7.45 p.m.
At 6.30 o'clock the basket ball team will have a game with the Normal school team at the symnasium, corner of Second street and Court avenue.
On Thursday the French classes will meet, the beningers at noon and the advanced class at 12.30.

Louisville Evansville Chattanooga Johnsonville Paducah.
Kansas City St. Louis meet, the beningers at noon and the advanced class at 12.30. Cairo New Madrid MEMPHIS . Si'ver Tea.

News of Rivers

River Bulletin.

Memphis, Tenn., Jan. 21, 7 a.m.

Sale, New Jewelry Shops, Main Floor

difficulty did yourself and you, any of you, of the big audience, who, under the wizardiy strin?, reed and brass, were translated to the land of heart's desire; the land of longing and pain, maybe; across fields a-Maying, back again over plains rich with the golden color of autumn; were thrilled, intoxicated by the journeys until from the darkening shawows of the drab street on emerging from the theater, faces of friends took on a new light; there was more sunlight in their smiles, more strength in their devotion; the world took on a brighter hus until thoughts of regulators, Bolsheviki, profiteers, wood alcohol purveyors, encountered in a day's contact with things mundane, seemed as far away as lost city of Adab on the Although Southwestern Presbyterian university was not definitely incorporated until 1875, it is necessary to return to ante-bellum days in order to trace the full history of the property that now forms a part of its equipment contact with things mundane, seemed as far away as lost city of Adab on the Babylonian plain sunken some 5,000 tyears in the past.

Yourself and you—your sublimal self and you, both of you, if you, can feel, even if not fully understand the suggestions of delight the filaments of fancy, Oberhoffer gathers tygether could nit have emerged from that concert without having been inspired, wounds of heart and fancy probably healed or healing under the therapy of sound this organization releases in every number.

Dawn and the haze of spring morn, pipings of young things just awakening to life, then the sounds of festival, the wooden sheed trend of the burghers, the approaching storm with its yellow penumbra almost stifling them the storm itself with its tremendous grays and dashes of yellow-red flame and the deep dianason of harmony, counter-harmony and hermonicusty discordant discord that now forms a part of its equipment.

In 1848 the Masonic fraternity of Montgomery county, in accordance with plans formed by the grand lodge of the state of Tennessee, erected the building now known as "The Castle," naming the Institution Montgomery Masonic college. The support of the grand lodge having been early withdrawn, the institution was conducted solely by the Masons of Montgomery county. In 1855 financial embarrassment caused the trustees to transfer the college to the Presbyterian synod of Nashville. Prof. W. M. Stewart, a prominent promoter of the Masonic institution, was made president and the name was changed to Stewart college. Three years later President Stewart resigned, and was succeeded by the Rey R. B. McMullen. The need of a the Rev. Mr. McMullen caused Prof. Stewart again to assume the duties of president. In 1870 he was succeeded by Dr. J. B. Shearer, under whose administration occurred the incorporation of the present institution, Southwestern Presbyterian university.

Soon after the close of the Civil war a movement was agitated for the founding of a university under the patronage of the Southern Presbyterian church. As it later became evident that it was not feasible for the entire church to co-operate in this plan, the church to co-operate in this plan, the churc in the Southwest determined to under Clarksville Selected.

Bids for location having been solicited, the city of Clarksville was selected and the property and endowment of Stewart college were transferred to the board of directors which bad-been created by the meeting of commissioners held in Memphis. Nineteen acres of ground were purchased for the enlargement of the campus and the city added to the endowment by a gift of $26,000.

added to the endowment by a gitt of $50,000.

Dr. Shearer was appointed acting head of the new institution. The position of chancellor was offered to the Rev. B. M. Falmer, D.D., of New Ordeans, but the reductance of his congregation to submit to his withdrawat caused him to decline the call. In 1879 the Rev. J. N. Waddell, D.D., became the first chancellor of the university. Dr. Waddell had long been connected with educational work in the Southwest, having been professor of ancient languages in the University of Mississippi, president of Lagrange college, and chancellor of the University of Mississippi. At the time of his election to the chancellorship he was serving as secretary of education of the Southern Freshyterian church. Shortly before Chancellor Waddell ar Shortly before Chancellor Waddell as sumed his duties an addition had been made to the university property in the form of the Stewart building, creeter in 1878 and named in honor of Prof Stewart, who had died in the previous The synods of Texas, and Arkansas withdrew from the group of controlling bodies after the founding of a separate Presbyterian college within the bounds of these states. The university is now under the control of the synods of Alabama. Louisiana, Mississippi and Ten-

Divinity School Added.

of the body of 85 sympathetic artists reserve, crush, or trumpet with more inspiration and charm.

John Phillip Sousa is right. Intoxication if you will, exaltation, perhaps, or whatever the variety of sensation it is that a concert such as this one jangles, thrills, then soothes, the nerves withat is the least injurious of all brands of stimulation. Let's hope there will be no nineteenth amendment against this brand of revelry of the mind, stimulation if you will, but stimulation in the right direction.

Divinity School Added.

In 1885 the school of Divinity was added to the other departments of the university. By funds contributed chiefly in New Orleans and Mamphis, the Paimer professorship of theology was founded Later came the Waddell professorship of Biblical languages and literature, and the McComb professorship of history, including ecclesiastical history. Owing to the increased cost of multiculance, the theological department of the institution was indefinitely suspended in June, 1917.

In 1888 Dr. Waddell retired from the chancellorship on account of age. The office was then held in succession by Drs. C.C. Hersman, J. M. Rawlings, George Summey, N. M. Woods and William Dinwiddle. In 1914 the executive tile was changed to president, and Dr. John R. Dobyns, of Jackson, Miss, was first exceed to fill this office. On his withdrawal in 1915, Dr. George Langthen professor of history and economics, was tempogarily appointed acting bead. At the close of that season Dr. Charles E. Diehl, the present head of the institution, was elected president. During the administration of Chanceller Summey the endowment was largely increased and Waddell hall, a memoriahof the first chancellor was erected in 1918 with funds contributed by the citizens of Claksville. The largest individual gifts received by the institution have been the donation of $100,000 by J. J. McComb, of New York, formerly, of New Orleans, and the recent sift of $50,000 presented by E. S. Hilliand. hencit of the Feabody Farent-Feacher association.

The affair will be given in the home of Mrs. Yarbrough, 1914 Oliver avenue. fall for several days.

The river in the Memphis district will lived, of Arkansias.

The university has enfoyed an honor-

If Memphis gets the Southwestern Presbyterian university, located at Clarksville, removed here, it will mean the establishment here of an institution to cost $1.500,000, one-third of which Memphis will pay.

To present Clarksville claims to the continuance of the institution at that city, the Clarksville chamber of commerce sent a large delegation to Nashwille recently to appear before the syned, and the session of the church body is being watched with interest, but only in this section, but in Middle Tennessee as well.

Story of University.

Although Southwestern Presbyterian university was not definitely incorporated until 1875, it is necessary to return to ante-bellum days in order to trace the full history of the property that now forms a part of its equipment.

Bags On

REED & DUECKER SHOW THEIR APPRECIATION

A check for $100, payable to the Firemen's Benefit association, was received by Mike Fitzmorris, fire chief, Wednesday morning from the firm of Reed & Duccker, as a testimonial to the good work done by firemen when the plant was set affire last week. "This is for the noble work done on our building, 171-75 North Main street, last Saturday morning," one paragraph in the letter accompanying the check. in the letter accompanying the check read.

BOYLE GUILTY.

Green Boyle, charged with larceny, was sentenced to 20 days in the county workhouse Thursday on a plea of guilty made before Judge J. Ed Richards in division one of Criminal court

FUN FOR WOMEN

"Diamond Dyes" Turn Faded, Old Apparel into New

TO DYE CLOTHES

Don't worry about perfect results. Use "Diamond Dyes," guaranteed to give a new rich, fadeless color to any fabric, whether it be wool, silk, linen, cotton or mixed goods—dresses, blouses stockings, skirts, children's coats, feathers, draperies, coverings.

The Direction Book with each package tells so plainly how to diamond dye ver any color that you can not make a mistake.

To match any material, have drug-gist to show you "Diamond Dye" Color Card.

Lumbago? Lessen the pain

ANALGÉSIQUE

will give you quick relief. Put it on your shopping list

Modern Home Facilities

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

Madison Ave. at Fourth St. Tel. Main 810-811. Memphis. Superior Ambulance Service.

